Nackles have been with their grandmother since the death of their own mother, May 13, 1902. Mrs. Isbell professed religion in girlhood and joined the Methodist church in Pisgah, in DeKalb county. A few years ago she transferred her membership to the Cookeville Methodist Church,

South. She was a quiet, unassuming woman, a good neighbor and a devoted Christian. Here sphere was in the home. It was there she was well known and loved by all who came into the home. It was there she was well known and loved by all who came into the home. She was a great sufferer and expressed a desire to live, but was willing to go and be at rest. The funeral and burial services were conducted by Rev. W. M. McClearn at the Methodist church and the Cookeville cemetery Sunday afternoon, Aug.31, 1913, and were largely attended. Bro. McClearn spoke feelingly and eloquently of the resurrection and the future life. May the influence of her life always be the those who follow her. Geo. W. John Paul “Tamer” Jones

John Paul “Tamer” Jones was the son of Capt. William Wade Jones and Rebecca Peranna Bartlett. Apparently his brother Riley called him Caleb and his sister Nora’s attempts to say Caleb gave him his nickname “Tamer” which is what he became known by exclusively. He married Anna May Bryan on December 11, 1909 in Tillman Co., OK. He had possibly ventured out to Oklahoma to purchase property with several friends including Ernest Haywood Maddux. Tamer was running an old general store in Buffalo Valley when his daughter, Opal Rebecca Jones was born in 1912. Later the family moved to Waverly, in Humphries Co., TN where he bought a farm.

After divorcing in 1924, Tamer raised his daughter with the help of his mother and his sisters, Dona and Minnie. He never remarried and after he sold his farm he worked at a flour mill for awhile and then later as a house painter. Tamer died at this home in Baxter, TN after suffering a stroke. Services were held at the Baxter Church of Christ. John Paul “Tamer” Jones is buried in the Maddux Cemetery, Putnam Co., TN.

The first mention of Prettyman in the records after his birth is a suit in Blount Co., TN in Mar 1796. In that suit he was sued for debt by John Jones, and the Court ruled in favor of John Jones and assessed damages at $18.06.

In 1797 the Hawkins line was surveyed to determine the boundary between Tennessee and the Cherokees. The line ran northwest crossing the Great Iron Mountains south of the Little Pigeon River and crossed the Holston River east of its junction with the Tennessee River. After the line was completed it was discovered that several white families were living south of the line on Indian Lands. We know that Prettyman was in the families removed from the Indian lands because on April 7, 1798 Governor John Sevier issued a : "Passport into Indian land Prettyman Jone, Zachariah Jones, John Hackney, David Styrhete, Joshua parsons, David Oatts, John Oree, Christopher Huzey, Alexander Ford, Joseph Gomry for the purpose of removing their cattle and stock from the Indian lands and to care for their growing grain. Some others living on Indian lands were John, Arch & Robert Cowan; Isham Hale; Ebenezer Jones; Moses Justice; Alexander, Humphrey, & James Montgomery; and Joseph Gomery(Montgomery)]. Also mentioned on the Indian lands was Annis Joans (Ann Jones] Prettyman's mother.

In Dec 1798 Puteman (Prettyman) Jones was fined $1.25 for one oath in the presence of the Court. Then in May 1799 he served on a jury. Elisha Case on Aug 30 1799 sued Arch Trimble and Putman (Prettyman) Jones. Jury verdict was that defendants did not surrender the principal in discharge of their duties. Also on Aug 30 1799 a jury verdict was returned against Prettyman when the jury awarded Michael Coffiel damages of .056 cents.

Prettyman preformed his duty by serving in the militia, and he obviously had the respect of the other members of his Militia Company as on Sept 26, 1799 he was elected an Ensign in the Blount County Militia.

Prettyman and Robert Pearce were summoned, apparently as witnesses, in the suit of Shaw vs Baker on Feb 24, 1801, and "being sollemly called & not answering forfeits according to the Act of Assembly". The was the start of a busy year for Prettyman as early in 1801 he sold corn with $10.83 to the Indian Agent, Return J. Meigs. The on Sept 22, 1801 he was issued a passport to go into the State of Georgia. What was the purpose of his visit to Georgia? Did he go to Greene County, GA to visit his Jones and Marvel cousins, or did he go to visit some problem? A problem did exist at this time, for the Indian Agent Return J. Meigs reported on Dec 31, 1801: "That three horses were stolen from the Cherokees on or about the 5th day of October last (1801). Two horses were stolen from Granny Maw, widow of the Cherokee Chief Hanging Maw, and on horse was stolen from the Cherokee Deer Biter. From circumstances of the most convincing nature, all the horses were stolen by Prettyman Jones, Zachariah Jones, and Edward Stone, all of the County of Blount in the State of Tennessee".

During 1802 Prettyman continued his civic activities. In Feb he and Abiah Ghormley (Montgomery) were ordered by the Court to take the oversight of the child of Moses Harvey until next Court. On Aug 23 he was summoned as a witness in the suit of Isaac Charles vs Valentine Mayo, but he did not appear. Then on Aug 27 he served as a member of a jury.

The problems came into his life as in Sept 1802 he was indicted by the Roane County, TN Grand Jury. The Court had a hard time finding him but he was finally arrested, and appeared in Court in June 1803. Then in Sept 1803 he was found guilty by a jury of his peers. He filed an appeal, but the verdict was sustained in Dec 1803, and he was fined $10.00 and costs. We have been unable to discover what the charges against Pretty man involved.

He was in the Blount County Court in Nov 1802 as Puteman Jones, where he sued James Roddy and was awarded damages of $78.63 2/3. The in Feb 1803 he was sued by John Drew and had to pay damages of .01 cent. In May he again served on a jury.

He moved from Blount County in 1804. Prettyman probably moved to Buffalo Valley with his brother Zachariah Jones, and William Hitchcock. There they joined or were joined by John Clemons, Moses Justice, George and William Skiles, and David Wallace from Blount County. By 1807 Prettyman had moved to White County, TN and probably with Zachariah Jones and William Hitchcock. On April 15, 1807 he was appointed to a jury in White County and this would seem to indicate he had been in the county for a period of time. On June 20 1808 he entered as hid occupant claim 100 acres of land in White Co. Sometime between 1808 to 1810 he moved back to Buffalo Valley. On Jan 20, 1810 as Prettyman Jones of Jackson Co. he sold the 100 acres in White Co. to Zachariah Jones.

We have been limited due to the loss of records by fire in determining the activities of Prettyman, but due to their involvement in the War of 1812 we do have a good idea as to his, activities and those of his brothers, Thomas and Zachariah, in late 1814 and early 1815. As a result of "General William Carroll's call in Nov. 1814 for volunteers to defend New Orleans against as expected attack by the British" Colonel James Roulston formed the Third Regiment of Tennessee Militia. Prettyman and Thomas Jones were in Captain Matthew Cowen's Company of this Regiment. The Company was mustered into service on Nov 15, 1814 at Camp Flynnes, Jackson Co. TN. On Nov 21 they left Nashville by boat, and arrived in Clarksville on Nov 24. " They made a fairly fast trip to New Orleans for they were at the mouth of Cumberland on Dec 1, Natchez on Wed Dec 14, and finally landed on Dec 20 1814 about four miles above New Orleans. They had traveled 1300 miles by boat in about 30 days.

After the Battle of New Orleans, Prettyman returned to Buffalo Valley. He was living there when the 1820 Census of Jackson was taken. It lists him with 2 males under 10, 3 males 10-16, 1 male 16-18, 3 males 16-26, and 1 male over 45, 3 females under 10, 1 female 10-16, 2 females 16-26, and 1 female over 45. His son John R. was listed separately. If all the ones listed are his then he had 10 or 11 sons and 6 daughters. He is not on the 1830 census. The last reference we have found on him is a reference in the Jackson County Ranger Book when he reported a stray horse on Feb 7, 1825. Between this date and June 6, 1827 when his wife Sarah entered 200 acres of land in her own name his death must have occurred. The 1820 census list him as a farmer with two slaves.

We do not know what Sarah's was Sarah's surname. I have thought she could have been Carr, Hitchcock, Skiles, Vance, or Wallace. I leaned to fact that she was probably a Hitchcock and the daughter of John Hitchcock due to Prettyman's brother, Zachariah marrying Rebecca Hitchcock. Plus the other associations with Hitchcock in Tennessee. Now that we know that Prettyman was probably living in North Carolina when he married I have not found where he would have been in contact with Hitchcocks at the time he would have married. Sarah was an unusually strong woman as it was uncommon for women to acquire land in their own name, but she entered 200 acres on June 6, 1827 in her own name. An old store ledger shows her obtaining cash money on Dec 5, 1832 by selling two pair of socks for 25 cents, and on June 14, 1834 she sold four pair of socks for $1.00. On April 11, 1837 she purchased Coffee and one pair of shoes, and the merchandise was picked up by Jink. And on Jan 20 1838 Jink picked up merchandise for Mrs. Sarah Jones. Sarah is on the 1830 Jackson census with 2 males 15-20 years of age, 1 male 20-30, 1 female 10-15, 2 females 15-20, and one female 50-60. The order of the census if Alfred Jones, John Jones, William Jones, and Sarah Jones. After 1840 we can find no further record of Sarah, and feel she must have died between 1840 and 1850.

Alfred Jones as administrator of Prettyman Jones, deceased, made two land entries for the heirs of Prettyman Jones. The first entry was on 5 Oct 1835 130 acres & 42 poles of land, and it was surveyed on 17 Nov 1836.<sup>38</sup> The chain carriers were John and Bird S. Jones. The survey included three entries previously made, and two were 10 acre entries, and the other was a 3 acre entry. The entry for 130 acres shows that it was to run west with a 50 acre tract (Prettyman's land) where Sally Jones now lives, and south to a 70 acre tract (Prettyman's) land where Charles Blare now lives. The land was granted per Grant # 5918 on 28 Feb 1838.<sup>39</sup> This grant joined the Sarah Jones 200 acre grant and Prettyman's 30 acre, 50 acre, and 70 acre grants. The second entry for the heirs was Entry # 2428 on 7 Nov 1836 for 134 acres and 136 poles of land, and it was surveyed on 16 Nov 1836.<sup>40</sup> The chain carriers were John & Bird S. Jones. The land was granted per Grant # 5909 on 26 Feb. 1838.<sup>41</sup> The East line of this grant was 130 acres of the heirs and the 70 acres of Prettyman's. On the North line was the 30 acre grant of Prettyman's, and Anderson tract. The Northwest corner of the grant was on the Smith County line, and western part was in Smith County.

We have no direct reference to the religion of Prettyman except for his baptism into the Episcopal Church when he was about nine months old. There are indications that he may have been active in the Methodist faith. His son Byrd was a devout Methodist, and his son, Lewis "Jink", deeded land to the Methodist church. Also John Puckett named a son Prettyman Puckett. John lived a few miles from Prettyman in White County and later moved to the Second Creek area in present day DaKalb County, Tennessee. Second Creek is not far from Buffalo Valley. John Puckett and his family was very active in the Methodist church, and it may have been because of their relationship in Methodist faith that caused John Puckett to name a son Prettyman Puckett.

We have been limited in determining the activities and lifestyle of Prettyman and Sarah in Buffalo Valley due to the destruction of the Jackson County records by fire. There is no doubt that he was a farmer, and this is confirmed by the 1820 census, which lists him as a farmer with two slaves. His primary crop would have been corn. This was not primarily to feed the livestock, but was grown to feed the family. From the corn came hominy, grits, mush, and the all important cornbread. The simplest form of cornbread was made of meal, salt, and water, and known as cornpone, hoecake, or corn dodger. Potatoes, beans, peas, turnips, cabbage, and the all-important pumpkin were also grown for food. They would have had cattle, hogs, and sheep. Sheep would produce the wool that Sarah used in making their clothing. The important animal, however was the hog, as pork was such a big part of their diet. Hogs were allowed to roam free, and they would become fat by eating the produce of the beech, chestnut, and oak trees.<sup>42</sup> A month or two before hogkilling time (winter) they may have put the hogs up and corn-fattened them.<sup>42</sup> Usually in December the hogs would be killed and the family would have fresh meat. They would put the middlings, hams, and shoulders in a big poplar trough with salt, a little saltpeter, and brown or maple sugar to cure.<sup>42</sup> Then they would later smoke the meat. From the hogs came not only their bacon, ham, and sausage, and their lard for cooking. Also from the hog came gut grease, etc. for the making of lye soap.<sup>42</sup> Soapmaking, lardmaking, and sugarmaking, and the weekly boiling of the family wash made at least one big iron kettle a family necessity.<sup>42</sup> Almost all of Sarah's cooking would have been done in iron pots and iron skillets, but she may also have had tin skillets and coffeepots, as tin was inexpensive.<sup>42</sup> She would have done all of her cooking in the fireplace with these items. From the cattle would sometimes come fresh beef, oxen for plowing corn, and most importantly, the milk and butter for their meals. The butter and milk would be taken to the spring so that they would have good cool milk and butter. Their home would have been a log cabin. Not only was the log cabin easy to build, but it was also a way to use the trees that were cut in clearing the land so they could grow their crops. In Buffalo Valley the way Prettyman and Sarah lived would remain fairly constant until the 1960's and 70's with minor exceptions. Raising of corn, hogkilling, lardmaking, soapmaking would continue to make most families self sufficient in Buffalo Valley until after World War II.

43. Brunetta Jones granddaughter of John R. Jones said that Alfred, Byrd S., Prettyman & Jink were brothers, and that they had a sister Rebecca Carr based on several interviews with Brunette Jones including one on 8 June 1963. Interview 7 June 1963 with Norman "Tink" Jones in which he said he was kin to children of Byrd S. and to Jink Jones. Nora Jones Steele in interview 27 Apr 1962 said Byrd S. had brother Prettyman and sister who married a Tucker and she was mother of "Doc Tucker". Ruben Jones in interview on 24 May 1966 said he was kin to "Jink" Jones and that he and Ike Jones were cousins. Leatha Medlin in interview on 25 May 1966 said she was a second cousin to Ike Jones and she was sure her great-grandfather was Prettyman Jones. Emma Burton granddaughter of Jink said her father, Andrew Jackson "Jack" Jones, said he was related to Capt Pert, and would visit little Pert as he was related to him based on interview Sept 1989. Addie Anderson Gill in an interview in 1970 said her great grandfather was Gallant Anderson and his wife was a Jones related to Capt Pert. Isaac "Ike" S. Jones wrote in family bible that was owned by Nina Jones Moss (copied in 1976) that John R. Jones had brothers Byrd, Alfred, Prettyman, & Jink, and sister Rebecca that married John Carr.

Old Store Ledgers indicate that Sarah Jones was the mother of Alfred, Lotty, Rebecca, and Sarah Jones. Also ledgers show: Prettyman, Jr buying for Rebecca Carr, William H. Jones account paid by Miss Sally Jones; and John Kerr's (Carr) account paid by Lotty Jones in 1834. The plats of land survey's show Prettyman's land and that of his children bordering his land. James R. Jones was in partnership with Byrd S. in land. Alfred, Byrd S., James R., & William H. Jones and Gallant Tucker witnesses for each other. Tradition in both Anderson & Jones families is that Sarah, wife of Gallant Anderson, was the sister of Byrd S. Also the son of Gallant & Sarah sold his mothers interest in land that had been owned by heirs of Prettyman Jones. Luvina Tucker's pension records reveal that she was a Jones and was married in Buffalo Valley, and she lived on & owned land formerly owned by Sarah Jones. Also naming patterns indicate a close relationship: I. E. Alfred, Creed H., James R., Prettyman, William H., Rebecca, and Sarah for Joneses, and Alfred Carr, John R., Lewis & Gallant Tucker. 44. Jackson Co, TN Court Transcripts 1839-1915, Roll 87, TSL&A. Dates of birth on Alfred Jones & Elizabeth Nichols Jones is from Civil War Pension file of Union veteran from Kentucky, Henry Nichols, son of Elizabeth Nichols Jones, the dates are from one of two Bible pages in the pension file. It appears that Elizabeth Nichols Jones made the entries at one time in what was probably her Bible.

GALLANT TUCKER 151 TN MOUNTED INFANTRY COMPANY H (#1067)

Source: Heritage of Putnam County Tennessee – 2008 by Putnam County Heritage Book Committee and County Heritage Inc.

Pg. 357 – Gallant Tucker and an older brother were forced out of their home at gun point and enlisted in the Confederate Army. Being under 16 and fearing for his life he went, but later escaped and returned home. He later joined the Union Army and served under Captain Prettyman Jones, Sr. in Company H of the 1st TN Mounted Infantry. One story went that Gallant was chasing CAS at a full gallop and his horse missed a short curve and won they both went causing him severe back pain.

The 121 legal pages of Gallant's file for his pension and later his wife's, is full of local history, names, dates and places.

Gallant, s/o Creed H. Tucker and Louvina Jones and his wife, Eli J. Garrison, d/o James Garrison and Rebecca Malone had only one child, Mary Jane Tucker. She married Napoleon B. Medley at age 14 and lived next door to her parents. As Mary Jane's children arrived they were often found living and working in Dock's home. When in 1910 Gallant died on the train to a doctors appointment in Nashville his obit listed several adult children – in fact they were his grandchildren.

Story by: Penelope "Penny" Giacoletti, d/o Robert and Betty Yvonne (Medley) Grayson. Penny was born May 15, 1942, in El Paso, Texas and died on February. 18, 2008, Hurley, New Mexico. She was a wonderful, sharing person and loved genealogy.

TUCKER, GALLANT: Gallant Tucker, one of the best known and most prosperous farmers of this county, died suddenly Saturday afternoon while enroute to Nashville on the evening passenger train. He had been unwell for several weeks and was going to Nashville for treatment. He was 65 years old and leaves a wife and several grown children. His remains were interred Sunday afternoon at the family cemetery in the Ninth Civil District. Putnam County Herald, TN: [Date: 1/27/1910, Vol. VIII, No. 4, Page 5]
